

HSCUS AGREEMENT #002

This is an agreement of the Legacy Protocol of HSCUS, a set of procedure for the situation where a representative of a member school is no longer be in the serving in the student council, to make sure the communication between member schools remain intact. The procedure of the Legacy Protocol is as follow:

1. A new representative will be selected within the student council.
2. All knowledge of HSCUS should be transferred to this representative.
3. This representative will be added in the HSCUS group chat on WeChat for further communication.
4. The representative that is no longer serving the student council will exit the group chat.

Member school name

Member School Representative Signature
